

Harbors Set New Tonnage Record

Aggregate net tonnage handled by the Los Angeles-Long Beach harbors last month set a new record for any one month in the history of the Marine Exchange, it was announced today.

The Exchange recorded a net tonnage of 2,638,937 for the month of Sept., 1960.

Net tonnage for Sept., 1959, was 2,402,120. The Sept. figure was rated higher than the total for August of this year, 2,335,895.

The first nine months of this year also net tonnage of 21,801,282, as compared with the same period in 1959, when the tonnage was 20,415,347. This tonnage, compared with the same year's Jan. to Sept. period, found 312 more ships passing through the harbors.

The United States again led the number of ships handled by the harbors with 244. Japan, Liberia, Norway and Greece continued to hold the lead in foreign flag arrivals.

Germany went into fifth place last month among foreign nations with 20 arrivals, the highest number for that country since the end of the war.

If any one thing were to be termed the symbol of spring, it would have to be the Daffodil. This showy bulb in its Myriad forms and colors is a tradition with gardeners around the world for its vernal show. Daffodils fairly shout for joy when spring arrives, and to most of us their mood is contagious.

Rolling Hills Estates Look Forward to 'Town Square'

Rolling Hills Estates proposed village Center at Palomares Drive and Crenshaw Boulevard will rival the Malaga Cove Plaza as a picturesque community focal point.

This was expressed today by John Dunckel, 4208 Ranchview Road, spokesman for the development organization.

"We are going to have a carefully controlled, beautifully designed and landscaped town square that will enhance both prestige and property values in our community," Dunckel said. He displayed architectural plans and a detailed artist's projection of the completed plaza in actual use.

Drawings of the village Center reveal a distinctive ranch-type architectural motif which complements the rural residential atmosphere of the surrounding area.

Branch post office, library, city offices, two churches, a small medical building, and restricted retail services will be included in the Village Center.

The development, previously by the City Planning Board and the Rolling Hills Estates City Council, is up for final public approval as Proposition "P" on the Nov. Ballot.

"This is a unique town square, a landmark, we can all enjoy and point to with pride. The carefully chosen architectural style of the Village Center, its small size, its basic concept, will add charm and value to our community," Dunckel said.

"Our new community needs a focal point. We need the community identity the village Center will provide. The proposed Village Center will substantially enhance the enjoyable atmosphere of Rolling Hills Estates."

Slim, Trim Class Available Now

Harbor District housewives "keep fit" by participating in Slim and Trim classes staged at 8 municipal playgrounds, it was reported yesterday by the City Recreation and Park Department.

Pointing out that the majority of body-building classes are scheduled mornings, Mrs. Minnette B. Spector, supervisor of recreation in charge of the Department's activities for girls and women, said that several play centers have afternoon and early evening sessions.

Because mental and emotional well-being depend to a great extent on physical fitness, the Slim and Trim classes are designed to help participants attain good posture, figure control, and general good health, Mrs. Spector reported.

Group exercises, rhythmic, and corrective exercises are included in the instruction sessions to help develop grace and ease of movement and to teach relaxation, so that those attending will learn to do their work with a minimum of effort.

To assist women in becoming better prepared to meet the demands of normal living, the Slim and Trim classes also feature "guest professors" who discuss various methods of developing charm, poise, and confidence.

Specialists from Southland universities and beauty salons give advice on skin care, good grooming, nutrition, and diet, Supervisor of Recreation Spector said.

WATER, WATER—Emphasizing that water just does not come from a tap, but must be hauled to meet the State's growing needs, Governor Edmond Pat Brown pours a glass for Torrance's Mayor Al Isen and Councilman J. A. Beasley. The Governor addressed a huge turnout of area dignitaries here this week, urging support of Proposition 1.

"RESPONSIBLE VOTING NEEDED IN CONGRESS"

...Tom Coffee

Tom Coffee is the Republican candidate for the 17th Congressional District. A father of four, Tom Coffee is a graduate of the University of South Carolina and the University of Southern California. As an electrical engineer he has experience in Southern California's problems in power, water and space age. He is a veteran with 2 1/2 years combat service in the Far East.

For nearly 18 years, voters in the 17th Congressional District have been represented by a man whose voting record must be considered irresponsible. The spendthrift voting record of this man—Cecil R. King—can be summed up in the words of Harry Hopkins—"Tax, Tax, Spend, Spend" to get elected.

Here are a few examples of King's inflationary voting record from only the last two sessions of Congress.

Voted Yes { (1) To raise interest rates on G.I. housing.
(2) To raise the national debt.
(3) To postpone interest on British loans.

Voted No { (1) To return to California 25 per cent of Federal cigarette taxes which were to be used for school construction.
(2) To exercise stronger controls over the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) financing, and for faster repayment of the TVA debt.
(3) To eliminate four flood control projects (outside of California) considered unnecessary by the Army's Corps of Engineers.

These examples are but a few. It's been 18 years of taxing, 23 years of spending. The only tax deferment he has voted for is for large manufacturing firms investing overseas. He is endorsed by the leftwing California Democratic Council.

AFTER 18 YEARS OF IRRESPONSIBLE AND SPENDTHRIFT VOTING IT'S TIME TO CHANGE TO TOM COFFEE for moderate voting. He will cast his vote in the interest of the 17th District instead of "One Word" interests. Coffee will vote for reduced spending, and assistance to the wage of earner in the form of tax reduction.
